

THE MINING INDUSTRY WAS CENTRAL TO THE FORMATION OF APARTHEID SOUTH AFRICA. HOW DOES THE INDUSTRY SHAPE THE POST-APARTHEID ORDER?

The Society, Work and Development Institute (SWOP) and the Wits Institute for Social and Economic Research (WISER) together with the Faculty of Humanities, the Claude Leon Foundation and the Wits Claude Leon Foundation Distinguished Scholars Programme at the University of the Witwatersrand are hosting a Symposium on Mining with Professor Dunbar Moodie, Professor, Department of Anthropology and Sociology, Hobart and William Smith Colleges, Geneva, New York.

The symposium will revisit some of the more enduring themes on how mining shaped, and continues to shape, apartheid and post-apartheid South Africa and explore research on topics such as mining and BEE, the environment, gender domination, migration, local geographies, etc.
