theedgeinstitute
economic development | growth & equity

Sociology of Work Unit (SWOP)

HAROLD WOLPE MEMORIAL TRUST

The Developmental State in Africa

The next seminar in the Harold Wolpe Memorial Seminar Series will examine the issue of The Developmental State in Africa.

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Speakers | Brian Raftopoulos | (Zimbabwean social & political analyst, now at Institute for Justice & Reconciliation) |
| | Vishwas Satgar | (political activist & Executive Director, COPAC) |
| Date | Tuesday, 22 May 2007 | |
| Time | 5:45pm – 7:30 pm(Drinks and snacks will be served from 5:15pm and also after the seminar) | |
| Venue | Women's Jail, Constitution Hill | |

PLEASE NOTE CHANGE OF VENUE & OF DAY

This is the 7th in our series on "Rethinking the Developmental State". The Harold Wolpe Memorial Seminars are intended to help create space for open and informed public engagement in Johannesburg around key political, social and economic issues.

Seminars are held monthly.

Parking: 'Super-basement' at Constitution Hill, entrance off Joubert Street

For more information on the seminar series, please contact The EDGE institute at 011 339 1757 or info@the-edge.org.za